

The New Emergency Conference

All Hallows College, Dublin 10th-12th June 2009

Managing Risk and Building Resilience in a Resource Constrained World

Supported by the Change Campaign Awareness Fund change

Ireland's plan of action on climate change

Supported by

sei SUSTAINABLE ENERGY
IRELAND

Comhar
Sustainable Development Council

TUESDAY JUNE 9TH

Public Lecture, Davenport Hotel, Merrion Square, Dublin

19:30 Dmitry Orlov – Seizing the Mid-Collapse Moment

WEDNESDAY JUNE 10TH

YESTERDAY – RACE TO THE TIPPING POINT

09:00 CONFERENCE OPENING

Richard Douthwaite – How the primary global crises interrelate and are intrinsic to our economic and governance structure

Minister Eamon Ryan – Conference
Launch

10:30 BREAK

11:00 CHALLENGES

Chris Vernon – Energy Systems: a survey of available energy sources, and their embedded energy cost

*Bruce Darrell – Food Systems: the effects of strategic global influences on the future of our food supply

Alex Evans – Climate Systems: our ability to deal with climate change depends on an adequate global framework

13:00 LUNCH

14:00 BREAKAWAY WORKSHOPS
1/ Climate Change and Global Governance

John Jopling and Alex Evans

2/ Energy and the Economy

Richard Douthwaite and Chris Vernon

3/ Food Security and Land Use Management

Annie Sugrue and Bruce Darrell

15:30 BREAK

16:00 COMMUNICATING THE CHALLENGE

Julian Darley – Influencing Power: Factors Involved In High-Level Decision-Making For Sustainable Change

Brian Davey – Further Dangers Ahead: prioritising risk management at all levels of political economic decision making

17:30 CLOSE

* Replacing Kate Bailey who was unable to travel

THURSDAY JUNE 11TH

Today – Managing the Transition

09:00 TURBULENCE

David Korowicz – Complexity, Economy, Civilisation & Collapse

Dmitri Orlov – Definancialisation, deglobalisation, relocalisation

10:45 BREAK

11:15 RESCUE TOOLS

Ludwig Schuster – A New Monetary Pluralism: from a recombination of regional economic circles to investing in a sustainable future

Mark Rutledge – Cap and Share: mechanisms to share scarce resources and provide economic incentives for renewable energy and efficiency investment

James Pike – Equity Partnership: exploring non debt-based financing for building development in the downturn

13:00 LUNCH

14:00 BREAKAWAY WORKSHOPS
1/ Rebuilding the Money System

Richard Douthwaite, Ludwig Schuster and Mark Rutledge

2/ Developing Appropriate Employment and Skills

Julian Darley

3/ Funding Infrastructure and Development

James Pike

15:30 BREAK

16:00 COMMUNICATING TRANSITION

Davie Philip – Developing a transition mindset to overcome the inertia of the familiar

John Sharry – Cultivating Hope and Managing Despair

Anne Ryan – Enough is Plenty

17:30 CLOSE

FRIDAY JUNE 12TH

TOMORROW – BUILDING RESILIENCE

09:00 PLANNING FOR DESCENT

Emer O'Siochru – Proximity Principle in rural planning and development; integrating energy, food, soil fertility, carbon mitigation and shelter

Bruce Darrell – Climate, Energy, Nutrition and the Glorification of Kale; a framework to create regional food security

10:45 BREAK

11:15 BUILDING RESILIENCE

Dan Sullivan – Capturing the value of the commons: Land Value Tax as a community development tool

Michael Hayes – Second generation biorefining for sustainable indigenous industries for Ireland

Corinna Byrne – Carbon Cycles and Sinks: refocussing the purpose and use of land

13:00 LUNCH

14:00 BREAKAWAY WORKSHOPS: 1/ Capturing the Value of the Commons

Dan Sullivan

2/ Nutrient, Energy and Material Resources

Vicky Heslop and Michael Hayes

3/ Prioritizing Natural Carbon Cycles
Corinna Byrne

15:30 BREAK

16:00 CONFERENCE SUMMARY
Roundtable discussion

17:30 CLOSE